

ISAF Economic Footprint Project Expert - Qualifications and experience

Essential qualifications:

- good English communications skills, able to draft reports and make presentations
- ability to lead the collection and management of data to be provided by nations
- experience in analysis of statistics
- experience in contracting/procurement policy/procedures (ability to make practical recommendations that are realistic and achievable by NATO and nations)
- ability to work within an overall framework without the need to be guided every step of the way
- capability to offer advice and develop recommendations for ISAF

Desirable qualifications

- experience in fragile state, preferably Afghanistan. Possibly a former member of PRT or any UN mission