Information:	For more information relating to selection and recruitment, please contact the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union, CPCC: Mr Paulo VIDAL, Mission Support Unit Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability, CPCC e-mail: cpcc.cfc@consilium.europa.eu Tel: + 32 (0) 2 281 5802

Seconded Personnel – For seconded positions, only personnel nominations received through official channels from Member States will be considered. Member States will bear all personnel-related costs for seconded personnel, including salaries, medical coverage, travel expenses to and from the Mission area (including home leave) and allowances other than those paid according to Council document 7291/09 (10 March 2009).

Contracted Personnel – The Head of Mission may recruit international staff on a contractual basis as required, through an employment contract⁽²⁾. The employment contract with the Head of Mission establishes the conditions of employment, rights and obligations, remuneration, allowances, travel and removal expenses and the applicable high risk insurance policy.

The General Secretariat of the EU, through CPCC – Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability, requests that Member States propose candidates for the following international expert positions for the EUPOL RD Congo, according to the requirements and profiles described below:

A. Essential requirements

EUPOL RD CONGO is a French speaking Mission.

Member States are requested to ensure that the following essential requirements are strictly met and accepted in respect of civilian international experts to the Mission.

() Commission Communication on Specific Rules of Special Advisers entrusted with the implementation of operational CFSP actions and contracted international staff (C(2007) 1746 of 21 December 2007) sets out the conditions of employment of international contracted staff.

Citizenship – Citizenship of a Member State of the European Union (EU) and full rights as a citizen.

Integrity – The participants must maintain the highest standards of personal integrity, impartiality and self-discipline within the Mission. Participants are not allowed to provide or discuss any information or document as a result of access to classified and/or sensitive information relating to the Mission or respective tasks and activities. The participants shall carry out their duties and act in the interest of the Mission.

Negotiation Skills – The participants must have excellent negotiating skills and the ability to work professionally in a stressful and diverse environment.

Flexibility and adaptability – Be able to work in arduous conditions with a limited network of support and with unpredictable working hours and a considerable workload. Ability to work professionally as a member of a team, in task forces and working groups with mixed composition (e.g. police, judicial, civilian and military staff). Be able to cope with extended separation from family and usual environment.

Availability – To undertake any other administrative tasks related with the competencies, responsibilities and functions of the respective position within the Mission, as required by the Head of the Mission.

Physical and mental health – Physically fit and in good health without any physical or mental problems or substance dependency which may impair operational performance in the Mission. To ensure duty of care in a non-benign environment, selected personnel should, in principle, be under the normal age of retirement in EU Member States.

Ability to communicate effectively in French – Mission members must be fully fluent in written and spoken French. Report writing skills are especially needed.

Computer Skills – Skills in word processing, spreadsheet and E-mail systems are essential. Knowledge of other IT tools will be an asset.

Serious deficiencies in any of these essential requirements may result in repatriation/termination of the secondment/contract.

B. Recommendable requirements

Knowledge of the EU Institutions – To have knowledge of the EU Institutions and international standards, particularly related to the Common Foreign and Security Policy, including the European Security and Defence Policy.

Knowledge of the Mission area – To have a good knowledge of the history, culture, social and political situation of the country. To have knowledge of the police, judiciary and governmental structures (distinct advantage).

Training and experience – To have attended a Civilian Crisis Management Course or have participated in an ESDP Mission (desirable).

Language skills – knowledge of English and local languages will be an asset.

C. Essential documents for selected candidates

Passport – The participants must obtain a passport from the respective national authorities. Seconding Member States should provide their personnel with a service/diplomatic passport, and agree to have them accredited to their Embassies or Consulates as appropriate in the region.

Visas – Member States and Mission members must ensure that visas are obtained for entry into the Mission area prior to departure from their home country. It is also essential to obtain any transit visas, which may be required for passage through countries en route to the Mission.

Security clearance required: The selected candidate will have to be in possession of the necessary level of security clearance (EU SECRET or equivalent) when deployed. The original certificate of the national security clearance must accompany deployed seconded experts.

Security equipment : Police officers shall be fitted with individual protection gears and armament, especially flack jackets (level 4) and bullet proof helmets, and their 9 mm duty side arm together with 100 rounds of ammo.

Certificate/Booklet of vaccination – To be in possession of a valid certificate/booklet of vaccination showing all vaccinations and immunisations received. To be vaccinated according to the required immunisations for the Mission area.

Medical certificate – All selected personnel should undergo an extensive medical examination and be certified medically fit for Mission duty by a competent authority from the Member State. A copy of this certification must accompany deployed seconded/contracted personnel.

Driver's licence – Be in possession of a valid – including Mission area – civilian driver's licence for motor vehicles (Category B or equivalent). Able to drive any 4-wheel drive vehicle.

D. Additional information on the selection process

The EU strives for improved gender balance in ESDP operations in compliance with UNSCR 1325. The General Secretariat encourages Member States and European Institutions to take this into account when offering contributions.

Application form – Applications will be considered only when using the standard Application Form (Annex 2) to be returned in Word-format, and indicating which position(s) the candidate is applying for.

Selection process – The candidates considered to be most suitable will be short-listed and, if needed, interviewed in Brussels, at the Headquarters of the Mission or by phone, before the final selection is made. If seconded candidates are required to travel to Brussels/Mission Headquarters location for interviews, the Member State will bear any related costs.

Information on the outcome – Member States or candidates (for contracted personnel) will be informed about the outcome of the selection process after its completion.
