

Viking exercise 16 - 26 April 2018 - Terms of Reference (ToR)

Regional coordinator for the two sites in Kungsängen and the site in Brazil with regular visits to Sweden: Be part of the game writing process and exercise in the role of “Regional office coordinator” for Brazil and Kungsängen sites. This person would be responsible for coordinating and contributing to the game writing for site Brazil and Kungsängen (Sweden). In Brazil we will have three embedded persons playing the roles of the RO (Regional Office) so the game writing there will be directed toward the UN brigade and of course also feed up to the UNMIB HQ. In Kungsängen there will be a RO TA (Training Audience). We are looking for someone with experience from working in a senior position at a UN regional office but all suggestions are welcome. It would involve participation in the remaining two mel/mil workshops (i.e. drafting of events and incidents used during the exercise) and the exercise and if possible a preparatory meeting 17-19 of January, approximately a total of 39 days in total.

Head of Regional Office on the site in Brazil: One imbedded Head of RO with experience from the UN and preferably some knowledge of these types of exercises in order to best support the game. Again, some regional office experience preferred. The person only has to participate in the exercise approximately 11 days and it will take place in Brazil.

Expert of Human Rights (HR) and Protection of Civilians (PoC) for the site in Brasil: Double hatted embedded expert on the areas of Human Right and Protection of Civilians (PoC) with experience from the UN, preferably from a regional office or at least good knowledge of working on this level with the subjects. The person only has to participate in the exercise approximately 11 days and it will take place in Brazil.

Political Adviser and expert on civil affairs for the site in Brazil: Double hatted embedded expert of the areas of Political and Civil affairs with experience from the UN, preferably from a regional office or at least good knowledge of working on this level with these subject. The person only has to participate in the exercise approximately 11 days and it will take place in Brazil.

About the Viking exercise: The VIKING exercise (16 - 26 April) is a training platform designed to prepare civilians, military and police together for deployment to a peace or crisis response operation. It is a distributed, computer-assisted, command post exercise supported by a large number of partner nations and organisations. The exercise is multidimensional and multifunctional, with an emphasis on realism and current operational concepts. The exercise offers a unique opportunity for learning through training in a designated role of an EU and UN missions together with over 2000 experienced colleagues. It is also a great possibility for networking with people from other organizations active in different areas of the peace building environment. <https://fba.se/en/how-we-work/cooperation-in-peace-operationsny-sida/questions-and-answers-about-viking/>
