COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Shows pride in work and achievements; demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter; is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results; is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns; shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges; remains calm in stressful situations. Possesses practical proven experience and outstanding expert knowledge in the technical field of work in general and in the specific areas required for the particular posts, demonstrates good judgment in the context of assignments given; able to plan own work and manage work/task priorities. Ability to apply technical expertise to resolve police related issues and challenges. Strong organizational skills. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work.

Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently.

Communication: Speaks and writes clearly and effectively; listens to others, correctly interprets messages from others and responds appropriately; asks questions to clarify, and exhibits interest in having two-way communication; tailors language, tone, style and format to match audience; demonstrates openness in sharing information and keeping people informed. Demonstrates ability to draft/edit a variety of written reports.

Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits inputs by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings. Displays ability to establish and maintain effective partnerships and working relations in a multi-cultural, multi-ethnic environment with sensitivity and respect for diversity.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Graduation from Police College or Academy or other recognized law enforcement educational institution is required. University degree in related field (law, law enforcement, security, forensic, criminology etc.) is desired.

Work Experience: A minimum of 5 years (in some missions 7 years) of active experience in national law enforcement is required in one or several areas of the following areas: Management (including, for example, police institution- and capacity-building), Administration (including, for example, human resource management, administration of police bodies, logistics, financing and budgeting), Police Operations/Security (including, for example, planning, maritime/riverine policing, border security, customs, immigration , special/formed police units operations, transnational organized crime), Crime Management/Crime Prevention (including, for example, crime investigation, forensic and community policing), Training (training organization, delivery and management, curriculum development and train-the-trainers) and Technical Support (including, for example, weaponry, police communication, civil engineering, architecture, natural disaster management, medical services). Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or other organizations is an advantage.

Languages: English and French are the working languages of the UN. For the post advertised, fluency in oral and written English is required. Knowledge of a second official UN language is an advantage.

Assessment for Mission Service: All candidates should be cleared through an Assessment for Mission Service (AMS) either by a Selection Assistance and Assessment Team (SAAT) deployed to a Member State or on the basis of an in-mission AMS upon arrival of the candidates. Failure to pass the in-mission assessment will result in candidate's repatriation. All repatriation related expenses in this case are to be borne by the Member State. Therefore, the Member States are strongly encouraged to request a SAAT to conduct an AMS in the Member State prior to the police personnel deployment.

Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.

1. SUMMARY

The Emerging Security Challenges Division (ESC) provides a structured approach for NATO to the emerging security challenges of the 21st Century and beyond. These include terrorism, Weapons of Mass Destruction proliferation, cyber threats, as well as risks to energy security. The Division plays an important role in the implementation of the new Strategic Concept, as well as the development of a strategic analysis capability at NATO HQ.

The Cyber Defence Section is a joint staff entity composed of personnel contributed principally by the International Staff and with co-located staff from the International Military/HQ C3 Staff and from Voluntary National Contributions (VNCS).

Main responsibilities of the Cyber Defence Section include:

- Development and update of NATO's cyber defence policy and concepts for the approval of appropriate NATO Committees (e.g. DPPC, C3B, NAC),
- Coordination and oversight of NATO-wide cyber defence implementations and operations through NATO Cyber Defence Management Board (CDMB),
- Operating NCIRC Coordination Centre and NCIRC Cyber Threat Assessment Cell (CTAC) to perform the cyber defence responsibilities specifically for NCIRC Tier1 and CTAC.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE POST

The incumbent will be responsible, as the action officer, for drafting the NATO guidance and concepts on how to develop a National Cyber Defence Policy/Strategy and supporting documents (eg. related legislations, organizational proposals for coordination of cyber defence matters with all National stakeholders with both public and private sector, creation of National operational capabilities/CERTs, international cooperation on cyber defence, etc.). The objective of the documents would be, from a national defence and security perspective, providing a strategic level cyber defence guidance to deter and defend against global cyber threats.

The incumbent's responsibilities will include coordination of the draft documents with NATO Nations and Bodies through appropriate committees/boards (e.g. DPPC, C3B, CDMB) and to consolidate the collected comments to finalize the draft documents for approval of approval of same committees and bodies.

The incumbent will also be responsible to oversee and support the Science for Peace and Security (SPS) Programme Projects which may be related with development of national cyber defence policy, concepts and organizations.

3. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

The incumbent:

- Advanced university degree or first level university degree (preferably in the field of cyber defence or in political science, international relations or in economics) with relevant experience may be in lieu of the advanced degree.
- At least 8 years of professional background and expertise in cyber policy and/or cyber defence incl. international cooperation in a national authority, of which 4 years at strategic level;
- must have solid professional background and expertise in cyber policy and/or cyber defence incl. international cooperation;
- must be familiar with the strategic issues, security challenges facing the Alliance and NATO's security environment;

- must have knowledge regarding the ongoing national cyber security strategy process at national level;
- must have proven evidence of decision making capacity and coordination skills at a Senior Managerial / Advisory level;
- must be fluent, orally and in writing, in English.

4. INTERRELATIONSHIPS

The incumbent reports to the Section Head, Cyber Defence. He/she will work in close coordination with other sections within the Division, as well as with other Divisions in the International Staff, with the NATO Military Authorities, with national delegations as well as Alliance capitals, the CCD CoE Estonia and other NATO Agencies. He/she will also maintain good working relations in his/her field of competence with other international organisations (e.g. EU, UN, OSCE) on cyber defence related matters. The incumbent will make presentations on the subject matter to NATO Committees, Bodies and visitors to NATO HQ, contribute to media briefings, and represent the section at workshops, conferences and seminars.

OSCE Competency Model

The OSCE Competency Model is a framework of core values and core competencies specific to the OSCE that aims to define the behaviours that are essential to effective performance in any given position.

Read more »

Background

This position is open for secondment only and participating States are kindly reminded that all costs in relation to assignment at the Secretariat must be borne by their authorities.

Candidates should, prior to applying, verify whether their respective nominating authority supports candidates financially to posts at the OSCE Secretariat, and if so, to which extent financial remuneration and/or benefit packages will be offered. Seconded staff members in the OSCE Secretariat and Institutions are not entitled to a Board and Lodging Allowance payable by the Organization.

The Office of the Secretary General (OSG) supports the Secretary General in implementing all aspects of his mandate by facilitating processes and supporting the Secretariat, as well as other executive structures and delegations. This includes diplomatic liaison, press and public information, legal services, internal auditing, gender issues and contacts with international and nongovernmental organizations and with the OSCE Partners for Co-operation. Within the OSG, Executive Management serves as the Secretary Generals personal staff, assisting him with both policy and administrative co-ordination. OSG includes a Policy Team and a Co-ordination Team, both of which are responsible to the Director of OSG (D/OSG).

The Office of Secretary General is looking for talented candidates for the post of Adviser on Youth and Security. This is an exciting newly created position based at the OSCE Secretariat in Vienna.

Tasks and Responsibilities

What would you gain from this assignment?

- First-hand experience serving as a close adviser to the OSCE Secretary General.
- Insight into the work of the Secretariat and other OSCE Executive Structures.
- The opportunity to closely work with delegations of OSCE participating States and Partners for Co-operation.
- Exposure to a multi-cultural professional environment.
- The chance to be part of a team of deeply committed professionals.

What would your tasks be?

If you are selected for this mid-level professional role, under the overall supervision of the Director of the Office of the Secretary General and the direct supervision of the Senior Adviser and Head of Executive Managements Policy Advisory Unit, you will support efforts to help identify the contribution that youth can make to addressing current security challenges in the OSCE region. The Adviser on Youth and Security will promote and facilitate inclusion and participation of youth in OSCE activities and projects; advocate and support youth mainstreaming in the OSCE agenda and activities; and promote the implementation by OSCE participating States of youth-related OSCE commitments and UNSC Resolutions 2250 (2015) and 2419 (2018) on Youth, Peace and Security. More specifically, you will be responsible for the following duties:

1. Providing expert advice and expertise to OSCE Secretariat departments, OSCE Institutions and field operations on the development of a consistent and systematic approach to integrating a youth perspective on comprehensive security in their programmes and projects; implementing youth-related OSCE commitments; and promoting the implementation by OSCE participating States of UNSC Resolutions 2250 (2015) and 2419 (2018) on Youth, Peace and Security;
2. Advising the Secretary General on youth-related matters, including drafting talking points, background papers and statements/speeches on youth-related issues;
3. Facilitating information sharing and exchange of best practices on youth and security through the network of OSCE Youth Focal Points, among participating States, with other international and regional organizations, and with civil society, including youth organizations;
4. Providing expert advice and support to participating States, in particular the OSCE Chairmanship and the Chair of the OSCE Group of Friends of Youth and Security, on relevant activities and youth-related events;
5. Providing policy advice on programmes, projects and activities aimed at integrating youth perspectives in international security discussions;
6. Representing the OSCE in meetings, conferences, seminars and academic fora as appropriate, including by giving speeches and presentations, and taking notes and drafting reports. Participating in staff meetings and drafting reports as required;
7. Performing other related duties as required.

For more detailed information on the structure and work of the Office of the Secretary General, please see: <http://www.osce.org/secretariat>: <http://www.osce.org/secretariat>

Necessary Qualifications

- Second-level university degree in international relations, law, social or political science, public administration, security studies or other related field. Specialization in youth mainstreaming and mechanisms of youth participation in multilateral organizations would be an asset;
- A minimum of six years of progressively responsible professional experience in international relations and political affairs work at national or international levels, more specifically in the field of assignment;
- Work or volunteer experience with youth organizations, in particular youth-led organizations;
- Professional fluency in English with excellent oral and written communication skills; working knowledge of other OSCE languages would be an asset;
- Computer literate with practical experience using Microsoft applications;
- Demonstrated gender awareness and sensitivity, and an ability to integrate a gender perspective into tasks and activities;
- Ability and willingness to work as a member of team, with people of different cultural and religious backgrounds, different genders, and diverse political views, while maintaining impartiality and objectivity.

If you wish to apply for this position, please use the OSCE's online application link found under <https://jobs.osce.org/vacancies>: <https://jobs.osce.org/vacancies>.

The OSCE retains the discretion to re-advertise the vacancy, to cancel the recruitment, or to offer an appointment with a modified job description or for a different duration.

Only those applicants who are selected to participate in the subsequent stages of recruitment will be contacted.

Please note that vacancies in the OSCE are open for competition only amongst nationals of participating States, please see <http://www.osce.org/participating-states>: <http://www.osce.org/participating-states>.

The OSCE is committed to diversity and inclusion within its workforce, and encourages qualified female and male candidates from all religious, ethnic and social backgrounds to apply to become a part of the Organization.

Please be aware that the OSCE does not request payment at any stage of the application and review process.

Please apply to your relevant authorities several days prior to the deadline expiration to ensure timely processing of your application. Delayed nominations will not be considered.
