

Expert on Network and Cloud Infrastructure Assessment

Responsibilities:

- In coordination with the Expert on resilience of election IT infrastructure
- Conduct thorough assessments of network and cloud infrastructure to identify strengths, weaknesses, and potential risks
- Identify vulnerabilities in network architecture and cloud configurations that could impact system reliability, data security, and performance related to the electoral process
- Perform security audits of relevant election IT infrastructure and network architectures
- Advise on best practices for securing the infrastructure, cloud environments and network communication, including encryption, identity management, and access control

Requirements and skills:

- Knowledge and experience in designing and deploying network solutions both on premise and within cloud infrastructure
- Knowledge and experience in assessing and re-configuration of network security measures
- Knowledge and experience in performing security audits
- Proficiency in the Romanian language would be an advantage. Knowledge of the Russian language would also be an advantage
- The possession of the security clearance is recommended, but not obligatory

Location within Moldovan authorities: Information Technology & Cyber Security Service (STISC)