

Electronic Application for Seconded Police Non-Contracted Post

INSTRUCTIONS

The Electronic Application for Seconded Police (Non-Contracted Post) is designed to provide the United Nations Police Division with all the relevant information about your candidacy for a Police Post. This form must be filled out electronically; no hand-written submissions will be accepted.

If you are submitting a printed version of this completed form, it must be printed on one side of each page.

To facilitate your completion of the EASP, a detailed set of descriptions and instructions are below.

Section 1: Candidate and Application Information

It is imperative that all your personal information is correctly spelled and represented in the fields in this section. Any deviation or mistakes in your basic information could either delay or nullify your candidacy.

- Police Training Institution – Please provide the details for any Police training institutions you have attended; most recent first. Provide the full institution name if possible, however abbreviations are fine if there is not enough space. Dates Attended should be Month and Year. In the Location column, either city or country would be acceptable. Should you require more than three rows, please use the Academic Institutions subsection below to complete your profile.
- Academic Institution – Please provide the full name of the Academic Institution and just below it, either the city or country. For Degree Level, please indicate the original name of the degree if you matriculated.
- Other Educational Achievement – Should you require further space to outline other Academic or Police training, please use this space to briefly mention.

Section 5: Previous Work Experience

Kindly indicate if you have previous United Nations experience as well as for how long. If you remember your IMIS Index Number, kindly provide that number as well.

- Organization – For the next twenty-two rows, indicate your police specific work experience as well as any international UN experience in reverse chronological order (most recent first). If you have previous United Nations experience, please begin with that information (most recent first) and then continue with your other work experience. If you have held various positions within a single organization, it may be beneficial to your candidacy if you separated each position into its own entry. If you require more space, there will be a section at the end of the form for you to freely type any further information. Please be brief in your descriptions of your responsibilities.

Section 6: Language Proficiency

This section is for you to explain any special linguistic skills and knowledge. The working language in the United Nations is English; however, some duty stations and missions also require the use of French. Some United Nations Field Missions may request the recruitment of Police Officers whom have additional linguistic knowledge, which we refer to as Advantage Language(s) in the Job Opening Announcement.

Section 7: Vehicular Proficiency

For deployment to a United Nations Field Mission, all United Nations Police Officers must have a valid vehicular driving license. All UNPOL Officers will be tested for driving proficiency upon arriving to the Field Mission, unless they took part and successfully passed an A.M.S. (formally known as S.A.T.) prior to recruitment.
