RESPONSIBILITIES:

Under the direct supervision of the SPC Team Leader, Standing Police Capacity (SPC), Police Division, Office of Rule of Law and Security Institutions, DPO, the Transnational Crime Officer provides support and assistance in the field of combating transnational crime, organized crime, and other emerging crime issues, especially in post-conflict environments. Within the confines of SPC management and the strategic mission of UN Police, which is to help build institutional national police and other law enforcement capacities in post conflict environments, the incumbent works closely to assist the various international and national actors at headquarters and in the field to help design strategies, as well as assists in the development and implementation of projects and programme activities. When at SPC's duty-station of Brindisi, the incumbent contributes to strategic and operational planning tasks, including the evaluation of the needs and requirements of UN Police, national police and other law enforcement agencies that the UN Police are mandated to support. Within the framework of overall PD/SPC activities related to combating transnational organized crime, strengthening domestic police and other law enforcement capacities in the respective countries or mission areas, the incumbent formulates proposals for the use of SPC and designs and supports in the implementation of programmes and projects to be launched. Further, the incumbent provides advice on investigation procedures and techniques in support of SPC planning and assignments, with a focus on serious and transnational crime. This includes capacity building on evidence handling and crime scene management. When supporting clients, the incumbent works closely with UN Police; assists in advising national police and other law enforcement officials in planning, developing, and implementing police and other law enforcement strategies, programmes and activities to deal with transnational crime; noting the relevance of related measures of cooperation among judicial and law enforcement authorities and inter-agency cooperation; and, assists in the preparation of proposals on how the SPC together with UN Police can provide specialized institutional capacity-building assistance in these areas.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to democratic policing, law enforcement and community safety, including assessing threat to human security, as well as analyzing gaps, identifying standards, and developing plans for capacity-building of law enforcement agencies; ability to plan, develop, implement and monitor programmes, projects and activities in the field of combating transnational crime; knowledge of the current trends, relevant international/regional protocols and comprehensive understanding of the development practices in the field of combatting transnational and organized crime; good research, analytical and problem-solving skills; and, ability to identify and participate in the resolution of complex issues and problems. Commitment to implementing the goal of gender equality by ensuring the equal participation and full involvement of women and men in all aspects of peace operations.

Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team's accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team's shortcomings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in Law, Criminology, Social Sciences, or another relevant field. A first level university degree with a combination of relevant academic qualifications along with extensive experience in law enforcement reform matters, including strategic planning, as well as combating serious and organized crime, maybe acceptable in lieu of the advanced University degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or other similar law enforcement training institution is required. Work Experience: A minimum of five years (seven years in absence of advance university degree) of active policing experience in a national police or other law enforcement agency at the strategic, operational and administrative levels, including at least three years of experience in anti-transnational crime and anti-organized crime policy-making and implementation is required. Rank: Must be on active police service possessing the minimum rank of Senior/Chief Inspector or rank equivalent to Major or above. Experience in UN peacekeeping missions, other similar international organizations or regional forums is required. Experience in the use of modern Internet-based research methodologies and sources is required. Language: English and French are the working languages of the UN Secretariat. For the post advertised, fluency in oral and written English is required. Knowledge of French is highly desirable.

Special Notice

Circulation of this Job Opening is limited to the Member States of the United Nations. Only police personnel who are currently employed in their national police service and who have received authorization from their respective national authority to apply for this Job Opening, will be considered.

Please note that during their secondment to the United Nations, police personnel are not eligible for reassignment or transfer to any other position within the Department of Peace Operations (DPO) or other parts of the UN Secretariat. Active-duty seconded personnel may serve under a UN Secretariat staff contract for a period of up to three years (cumulative), which, in exceptional cases, can be extended for a fourth and final year subject to operational needs and satisfactory performance. This service limit includes periods of any prior services with the United Nations as an active-duty seconded officer under a UN staff contract.

Candidates who have previously served as active-duty seconded personnel may reapply after a break in service of at least one year from their last secondment under a UN staff contract, subject to the contract limitation as indicated above.

Nominations of currently serving active-duty seconded police personnel on a UN staff contract will not be considered.

Candidates must meet all the requirements of the Job Opening at the time of nomination in order to be considered for the position.

Nominations of women candidates are strongly encouraged.
